

A Few of Our Recent Reviews

The Blues Were On Fire The Oddfellows Arms, Hemel Hempstead on Sunday 4 June 2023

There was Blues on Fire at The Odds on Sunday. This excellent 5-piece combo certainly live up to their name, but also include other genres of music. Their line up is fronted by the powerful, authentic blues and rhythm & blues voice of singer Eve Atkins, backed by outstanding musicians. 'Barrie Flemming guitar, Chris Neale keyboard, Ed Hook bass and Gordon 'Noddy' Joyce drums. Their setlist included numbers such as: Little Willie John's, Need Your Love So Bad, Tony Joe White's, Steamy Windows, Robert Johnson's, Sweet Home Chicago, Nat King Cole's, Route 66, Moon Martin's, Bad Case of Loving You and their version of Wilson Picket's, Three Time Loser seen below.

A nice change to have a blues band play at The Odds, especially of the quality of Blues on Fire. Rick Starling, Monday 5 June 2023

Blues on Fire Black Horse, Eastcote on Friday 13 January 2023

We saw Blue On Fire at the Black Horse Eastcote, as luck would have it, on Friday the 13th! They played three sets full of energy, great musicianship and great songs. Thank you; we really enjoyed the evening, looking forward to your next visit! Greg Taylor, Sunday 15 January 2023

Ultimate Blues Admiral Nelson, Whitton on Saturday 16 July 2022

Had the choice to see 2 bands, went to see the familiar one , big mistake!! So scuttled along to see Blues on Fire all I can say is wow wow wow 🤩 , musically and vocally brilliant. I will definitely be seeing this band again and they certainly will not be my second choice. Thank you for an awesome 🤩 night.
Diana Brackley, Monday 18 July 2022

